Remarks: FOR ADDITIONAL SPACE USE A SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT

At 1630 hours on July 27, 2018 I, Deputy Larry CRESSMAN, along with Deputy Rhett STETCHOCK left Huntingdon Borough to serve a contempt of court warrant on Ellen GERHART. We were accompanied by two PA. State Police Troopers ( CPL. Gene JENKINS and CPL. Melissa SNEATH). I took the warrant onto the porch of the residence and knocked. GERHART answered the door. I told her I had paper work for her and asked if she would step out on to the porch. She replied " I am quite fine standing here." I told her "that's fine, I have a warrant for your arrest and I am taking you with me." She immediately said she needed to call her daughter. I told her we were not waiting and she needed to step outside. She continued to speak to her husband giving him orders on everyone he needed to contact and then finally stepped outside. I asked if she was going to cooperate to which she replied "no". I asked if she had anything in her pockets, to which I got no reply. I warned her that anything found on her once she gets to the jail will be contraband and she'll face additional charges. I asked CPL. SNEATH to do a general pat down on GERHART. STETCHOCK applied
